Kirk Nugent

Innovator, Speaker, Leader, Host, and Producer are some of the titles that accurately describe Kirk Nugent. As a speaker, Kirk challenges everyday people to think holistically about their relationship to technology at work for career success and at home for their families. As a leader he has managed Information Technology Teams as Director and CIO for an NGO in South Africa and for two Higher-Ed institutions in North Alabama.

He is the Host and Producer of the show "How it All Werks" and has been instrumental behind several large-scale Livestream broadcasts. He is a self-professed Jesus Geek who loves to engage with audiences.
